

INSTRUCTIONS FOR FILING APPEAL FORM 101-90

1. Appeal must be filed within thirty (30) days of the mailing of your tax bill.
2. Two (2) copies of the appeal form must be submitted along with a copy of the tax bill.
3. After the appeal form has been completed and a copy of the tax bill attached, it must be returned to your local assessor's office. The assessor will verify that the value was indeed set by the Rhode Island Vehicle Value Commission and complete the portion of the form that applies.

NOTE: Only values set by the Rhode Island Vehicle Value Commission can be appealed to said commission. If the value was set by the assessor, the appeal must be handled at the local level. Any appeals forwarded to the commission for values that were not set by the commission will be returned unanswered. Assessors may adjust for diesel engine.

4. Appeal forms are then submitted to the Value Commission by the assessor. The commission will notify the assessor of their decision within 20 days. The assessor must in turn notify the taxpayer within 10 days of the receipt of the commission's decision.
